ACLU of Iowa Announcing $500 Mannheimer Prize for Student Video Highlighting Civil Liberties

The American Civil Liberties Union of Iowa is sponsoring a video contest for students in the 7th through 12th grades and awarding the winner a $500 prize.

The video must be about a civil liberty the student particularly prizes, such as freedom of speech and expression, racial justice, student rights, immigrant rights, the right to privacy, and fair treatment regardless of gender, religion, or sexual orientation. The video should be between 3 to 10 minutes. The deadline is Monday, April 4.

The Mannheimer Award was established by the family of the late Robert Mannheimer, a Des Moines attorney who supported the ACLU of Iowa for more than 50 years as a cooperating attorney, board member, and donor.
